Further information

Stodels in Milnerton have a fish shop. I visit it weekly to rescue fish stuck behind filters or inside artifacts placed inside the tanks. The water is also often murkey. I find a dead fish in a tank at least 50% of the tanks weekly.

They are not cared for by a qualified fish person, just an employee who's job profile includes to look after the fish while they work in the plant shop.

They say they care, but they dont. Pls can you help to insist a dedicated QUALIFIED and CARING person.

Thank you.
