General Report Comments: An inspection was conducted on-site at the cadet base property. Access was granted by Abdul, a local program affiliate, who introduced a co-caretaker (a former Navy Captain).

Injured Dog Verification:
Caretakers confirmed the injured dog was transported to the SPCA earlier that morning .
Contact was made with the SPCA hospital, directly confirming the dog was admitted and currently receiving veterinary treatment.

On-Site Inspection & Animal Welfare:
Remaining Dogs: Two remaining dogs were observed free-roaming on the property in fair body condition.
Provisions: Adequate shelter, clean drinking water, and sufficient food were provided. An inspection of the food stores confirmed an ample supply on-site.
Care Arrangement: Caretakers confirmed that the owner, Reuben, resides on-site daily or delegates daily feeding and welfare checks to them when away. Overall conditions align with previous satisfactory inspections.

Owner Communication (Telephonic):
Spoke directly with the owner, Reuben, who cited temporary absence due to family wedding obligations.
Reuben confirmed he arranged for the injured dog's veterinary transport that morning.
He noted ongoing legal proceedings regarding local neighbors disrupting the dogs and throwing items/food over the fence.
Reuben apologized for his limited phone availability , reaffirmed full cooperation with inspector visits , and agreed to maintain standard animal care protocols.

Next Steps:
Follow-up visits will be scheduled to monitor the injured dog's post-treatment recovery and ongoing care upon return.
