General Report Comments: A comprehensive follow-up welfare inspection was conducted on-site; access was granted by the owner, Edrees.

Canine Welfare & Enclosures:

Health Status: All dogs were inspected in their respective kennels. Animals presented in good body weight and physical condition, with no ocular discharge or eye issues noted. Clean water, adequate shelter, and clean surroundings were provided.

Enclosures & Fencing: Previously identified hazard points on old fencing have been removed. The owner has purchased new palisade fencing to rebuild all kennels and is awaiting additional materials prior to installation.

Tail Docking / Maiming Inquiry: No freshly docked puppies were present on site. The owner discussed ongoing legal challenges by his breeders' association regarding tail-docking legislation. The inspector reiterated that tail docking remains illegal under animal protection laws. The owner confirmed he has suspended breeding operations and is currently only showing his existing dogs.

Farm Animals & Livestock Assessment:

Ostriches: Maintained in fair body condition with adequate shelter. The previously plucked/injured ostrich is recovering well, showing healthy feather regrowth.

Sheep: Provided with adequate shelter and clean water. Hooves were inspected and confirmed to be in good condition with no overgrowth.

Cattle: Free-roaming and showing marked physical improvement compared to past photo documentation. The owner and his father administered medical treatments, boosters, and proper nutrition. Cattle are actively grazing on open pasture and receiving supplementary lucerne and oat hay.

Case Status & Action Plan:

No immediate welfare violations observed during this inspection.

Case Status: Remaining open. A routine follow-up inspection will be scheduled in a few months to ensure continued compliance and monitor breeding/docking prohibitions.
