CHECKLISTS

General Report Comments: Upon arrival, accompanied by Cadet Bamanye, we knocked on the gate, shouted and hooted; however, no one responded or came to the gate. I was unable to observe any animals on the property, although a kennel was visible. I further noted that the gate leading to the backyard appeared to be closed, and I could not establish whether any animals had access to the front area of the property. The vegetation on the property was heavily overgrown, and I was unable to observe any food or water for animals. I therefore left Notice to Comply number 16-224, requesting that the owner make contact with the Cape of Good Hope SPCA within 72 hours.
