CHECKLISTS

General Report Comments: Upin arrival at the property I met with the owner and addressed the welfare concern brought to our attention and regarding the dog in question. I was told that the dog was knocked by a vehicle and is not moving.

I went inside the property and observed the dog in question laying on the ground by a blanket. I explained that the dog in question needs to be seen by a veterinarian and it was supposed to be taken to a nearby facility for attention. I was told that there is no funds for the dogs medical attention and I explained that unfortunately the dog can not stay on the premises without attention.

I persuaded the owner to surrender the dog over to the spca for euthanasia and she agreed, I also issued a warning stating that the owner should without any delays seek veterinary attention for any animal in her care that is sick or injured
