General Report Comments: Upon arrival at aproximately 09H50 i came to the property people then showed me where the dog was on the side of the wendy they explained that gangsters came to shoot one of the residents on the property , the dog then went for them and got shot and the person who the came for got away safely

I obsevered a Adult male Dog Tan in color , in poor condition breathing heavy and looking tired with a GSW to his lower body

I asked whos the owner and a lady identified herself to me as Julianna Jonkers , i explained to her that we are not ambulance services anymore thats why they contact us , i explained then to her about the law and that if she signs the dog over it becomes property of the spca she understood and agreed her two daughters where witnesses to it dog 3 was surrendered to us A62492 case can be finalized
