General Report Comments: Someone was cleaning and feeding the Macaw cage at the time of my inspection. I noticed that the birds were being fed a species specific diet of seeds and fruit. I cautioned against the feeding of too much peanuts. The cage was more than adequate and the perches were well spaced. I did not observe any welfare concerns.

The cockatoo was sitting on its cage, it appeared to be in a fair condition.

All the birds cages were adequate enough and the cages were being cleaned at the time of my inspection.

We can follow up in a few weeks.
