General Report Comments: An inspection was attempted at the property; knocked and called out, but received no answer.

Observations & Findings:
Animal Condition & Living Area: The dog in question was observed free-roaming on the property in fair body condition. The living environment was clean, and the animal had access to adequate shelter and clean water.
Tethering: An unused chain was noted near the shelter, though the dog was not tethered at the time of inspection.

Actions Taken & Directives:
Warning Issued: Issued Warning Notice #25833
Directive: The warning instructs the owners to refrain from chaining the dog unnecessarily on a short or static chain in the future, as reported and evidenced by the chain present.
Notice Service: Affixed/taped the warning notice to the front gate of the property.
Conclusion & Recommendation:
No active welfare concerns were observed on-site during the visit.
A future reference warning has been served, and the case may now be closed.
