An inspection was conducted at the unit on 24 January 2026, and the below are recommendations to improve the welfare of the dogs at the unit:

1. It was noted that the unit lacks the necessary training apparatus and equipment to keep the dogs fit and healthy, which is essential for them to perform their functions effectively. This must be addressed within 30 days, and proof of the corrective actions taken should be submitted to specialprojects2@nspca.co.za
2. There are currently no relief camps for the dogs at the unit. Relief camps should be established to give the dogs stimulation and the opportunity to exercise while the kennels are being cleaned and the handler is unavailable. This must be addressed within 30 days, and proof of the corrective actions taken should be submitted to specialprojects2@nspca.co.za
3. Email any queries to specialprojects2@nspca.co.za upon receipt of this notice
