I called the owner of the daycare, who gave her version of events stating that her workers informed her of the incident on the day, she came to the property and assessed the dog and called the owners of the dog who informed her they will cpme and fetch the dog. Thus, there was no contraventions relating to the Animals Protections Act. I called the complainant and informed her of such, however she was not happy and made mention that there is clear neglect and we have received multiple complaints already about this place. I told her that does not mean anything and we have to go according to the Animals Protections Act and can only address concerns if there is clear contraventions of such Act . She said she will send us vet reports and statements once she gets it, however I will be closing this case as there is really no contraventions and I advised her to escalate the matter to the City if they are not happy with the procedures taken by the Daycare. Alternatively, if the complainant or any new complainant relating to these issues wants to reopen the case, please have it reviewed by Rudi as he advised he was dealing with all the enquiries relating to this business and closed it off himself as well , and it should go to him.
