Comments:	Good morning Magdalene I trust you are all well. The education team visited Hyde Park Primary on Thursday to do the Ani-Pals puppet show for their foundation phase learners and Friday with a PP Point presentation for the older learners . We saw a total of 750 learners who heard our message on responsible pet ownership and respect for all animals. We distributed animal care coloring books for the younger learners and Hero in My Hood Activity booklets for the older learners. Posters were left for teachers for the classroom as well. Kind regards, Lucille
