Please describe the concern you have

At Number 42 Mahogany Crescent - is a honey-coloured bull mastiff that I think may be neglected. He appears to have bad mange or something on his ears which goes down into his neck. He is visibly uncomfortable, continually shaking his head. I don't see any signs of them trying to rectify the problem. There was also for many months black bull mastiff there but I don't see him anymore. The water bowl seems empty and I am really worried he's been abandoned. I don't know the people who live there or if it's a rental and no-one is there - perhaps she's left there as a guard dog. I have made friends with her and she lets pet her, I have been away and when I walked pas there today was completely appalled and saddened by her situation.

Please help!
