Comments:	As discussed with Elani. This case was last attended to a while ago and with the respondant not always being home i called first to make an appointment. He was under the impression that was not needed. I called the complainant and he confirmed that cleaning was still an issue. I have sent a whatsapp asking the respondant when he can avail himself and i updated contact details and animals to the best of my ability with the information on all notes. I await a day and time from the complainant as per screenshot attached.
