Comments, if any:

The owners wife was present. She explained that Snowy was her husband's baby. She mentioned that he was an escape artist and that no matter what they did he always managed to escape from the house. She said he loved going for walks. We noted Snowy had no access to water or shelter although mentioned that Snowy preferred to lay inside when hot or cold. It was explained that Snowy needed to have the access to shelter in the event he ever needed it , Anna understood and said her and her husband would make some improvements. There was also a few hazardous materials around the house that could cause injury. This was addressed in warning 120655. Snowy was also brought in for steri Green card G46538
