Subject: Re: CoGH SPCA: Thin dog

Good day

The dogs still dont get food everyday. The bones and ribs showing just makes me so mad at that owners. That dog is so malnourished and underfed. The dogs need love attention and a soft bed to sleep on. I cant comprehend that our laws are so to protect owners. I cant sleep thinking how hungry they are. The fluffy dog is 14years old and that black dog about 1year old.

If you check back on my emails you will see a brown pitty who i also reported but when the inspector came the dog was already gone to her daughter. They were paving at their house so they let their dog stay with the mom. From one month living with the mom that dog went home skin and bones. But when the daughter brought the dog its was well looked after.

Is this case still open? Please please save these babies.

Thank you so much for what you are doing.

Kind regards
Martinette
